Graduate Certificate in Writing for Business, Industry, and Technology Requirements Checklist

Students must complete English 5220, English 5230, and 12 additional credit hours in approved writing courses (listed below) for a total of 18 hours in order to earn the Graduate Certificate in Writing for Business, Industry, and Technology. Please note that these classes may be simultaneously counted towards the M.A. in English as they fit into the Writing and Linguistics concentration.

Graduate Certificate in Writing for Business, Industry, and Technology (18 hours):

- ☐ English 5220: Technical Writing (3 hours)
- ☐ English 5230: Advanced Technical Writing and Editing (3 hours)
- ☐ 12 hours to be selected from these courses:
    - ☐ English 5060: Intercultural Communication (3 hours)
    - ☐ English 5280: General Composition Theory (3 hours)
    - ☐ English 6540: Computers and Composition (3 hours)
    - ☐ English 6560: Digital Culture: Theory and Practice (3 hours)
    - ☐ English 6880: Writing for Business, Industry, and Technology (3 hours)
    - ☐ English 6890: Grant Writing (3 hours)